

Get up to $300

for a SPS Travel, Reporter, or Research Reporter Award!

Travel and reporter awards can be used for zone meetings, regional meetings, national conferences, and now workshops at national labs!

Reporter Awards

Attend a professional physics or astronomy meeting and write about your experience. Reporters will have the opportunity to have their article published in the SPS Observer or Radiations.

Travel Awards

Travel and present your research at professional physics or astronomy meetings. Just show proof of abstract acceptance and poster presentation!

Research Reporter Awards (NEW)

Travel to a national lab for professional development or to use their equipment. Receive this award by writing about your experience and the research you're working on!
